The new Sanctum Inle Resort in Myanmar appointed Philippe Arnaud as its new General Manager effective 7 July 2015. Arnaud brings with him more than 30 years of hospitality experience.

The 52-year-old Frenchman Arnaud joins the Myanmar unit from Paris, where he served a three-year stint as corporate operations manager for Valotel France, owner of 16 Accor-managed hotels in Europe. Prior that, he was the general manager of Hotel Pignonnet, a 50-room, Small Luxury Hotels property in Aix-en-Provence, just north of Marseilles.

"Philippe has an outstanding track record," said Kurt Walter, Group General Manager – Hospitality Division, The Apple Tree Group, Sanctum Inle Resort's management company. "He has broad international experience, demonstrated sales and marketing success, a strong food and beverage background and is a people-oriented leader. I've no doubt he'll be a tremendous asset for us as we begin to write the opening chapter for Sanctum Inle Resort."

The new resort in Inle has 96-rooms and is a Brigitte Dumont de Chassart-designed hotel managed by The Apple Tree Group The resort is three hours from Yangon – spanned by air to Heho airport, then by car to Nyaung Shwe, and finally by boat to Inle Lake's west side.
